

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATE FOREIGN LANGUAGE EXAMINATION ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Foreign Language Examinations are administered by the School of International Letters and Cultures multiple times each year. Competency is certified by the School of International Letters and Cultures upon satisfactory performance on a Foreign Language Examination specific to the particular graduate program in which the student is enrolled. The student must pass the examination in no more than three attempts. In order to be eligible for the second or third examination, the student must have an approved Petition to the Graduate College (available at www.asu.edu/graduate/forms).

The School of International Letters and Cultures will notify, by mail, the student and the department of the results of the examination. It is your responsibility to remind your advisor that, several weeks in advance of the Graduate Foreign Language Examination, (s)he must provide the School of International Letters and Cultures with the materials over which you will be tested. The advisor should submit or recommend to the School of International Letters and Cultures relevant books, journals, or reprints of articles in the desired foreign language. Approximately 200 pages of materials should be presented.

PLEASE NOTE: Students must be registered for the semester/session in which they take the Graduate Foreign Language Examination.

This form must be submitted to the School of International Letters and Cultures at least one month before the examination date.
