

Graduate Student Campaign on Academic Integrity

- Value Statement
- Practice
- Signed statements
- Placement of policy
- Educational initiatives

Draft Value Statement:

Our ASU graduate programs require the highest standards of academic integrity of all graduate students, both in academic coursework and in their related research activities.

Central to our mission as a research institution, we value and expect academic integrity. Graduate education embodies respect for original ideas, creative endeavors and research. The independent work of scholars is grounded in the highest quality of research and scholarship.

Signed Student Statement

I agree to abide by the highest standards of academic integrity in my academic coursework and related research activities.

I acknowledge my responsibility for understanding and adhering to the ASU academic integrity, copyright, and research on human and animal subjects polices.

I will/have completed these responsibilities in compliance with ASU polices and the standards of my profession (<http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity>).

I understand that failure to follow these polices could lead to sanctions including dismissal from the program or revocation of my degree.

Statements used at:

- Application submission
- Admission acceptance
- Filing program of study
- Notification of candidacy
- Thesis/dissertation format filing

Encourage dissemination

- Web pages
- TA/RA handbook and orientation
- Graduate program handbooks/material
- New student orientation
- Research seminars
- Syllabi

Proposed Initiatives

- Video series for classes
- Brownbag/podcast series on “Managing information, research and scholarship”
- Use of Safe Assignment for education
- Competitive grants student initiatives