March Events

European Innovation Academy Final Registration Deadline
Tuesday, March 1, 2016
Information: https://www.inacademy.eu/

The European Innovation Academy (EIA) gives ASU students the opportunity to join an existing team of international students or bring an existing team they are part of at ASU to a 3 week intensive boot camp experience in Nice, France (July 3 to July 22) or Turin, Italy (July 10 to July 29). Registration closes March 1, 2016, but students should register before Feb. 1 to receive substantial discount.

Tips for Writing a Literature Review Downtown Phoenix campus
Wednesday, March 2, 2016
3 – 4 pm
Post Office, Lower Level, Room L1-32

Having trouble starting or stopping your literature review process? Presenters will discuss tips on creating a literature review, incorporating it into your paper, and evaluating drafts of your literature review.

Effective Writing: Tips for Multicultural Writers Tempe campus
Thursday, March 3, 2016
3 – 4 pm
Payne L1-27

Writers whose first language is not English may have many questions as they write papers for a variety of academic courses. This workshop will provide tips about English grammar and writing in graduate school.

Graduate Student Programs: Information Session for Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) and Preparing Future Scholars (PFS) Tempe campus
Thursday, March 10, 2016
1 – 2 pm
Memorial Union (MU) 207

Learn more about Graduate Education's one-year interdisciplinary for-credit seminars that allow graduate students and postdocs to explore the worlds of academic faculty members or careers outside of academia. These companion programs offer inside looks into the world of higher education (PFF) and industry, government, and non-profit sectors (PFS). Whether interested in academia or the private sector, PFF and PFS offer honest, informative overviews of these very different career pathways.

NEW! Grad Week: GPSA Wellness Fair Tempe campus
Monday, March 14, 2016
10 am – 2 pm
Well Devils Suite and Small Gym F, Sun Devil Fitness Complex (SDFC)

Take some time to nurture yourself with mini acupuncture sessions, chair massage, nutrition counseling, life mapping and guidance, interactive activities and more. Free yoga and meditation in Small Gym F, plus free juice and smoothie samples from The Well. More information: http://gpsa.asu.edu. Questions: nmovahed@asu.edu.

Graduate Student Programs: Information Session for Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) and Preparing Future Scholars (PFS) West campus
Tuesday, March 15, 2016
1 – 2 pm
University Center (UCB) 241

Learn more about Graduate Education's one-year interdisciplinary for-credit seminars that allow graduate students and postdocs to explore the worlds of academic faculty members or careers outside of academia. These companion programs offer inside looks into the world of higher education (PFF) and industry, government, and non-profit sectors (PFS). Whether interested in academia or the private sector, PFF and PFS offer honest, informative overviews of these very different career pathways.

NEW! Grad Week: GPSA Interdisciplinary Research Symposium Tempe campus
Tuesday, March 15, 2016
4 – 6:30 pm
Memorial Union Building (MU) Ventana A and B, 238, 240, 242, 246

Recipients of the Athletics Research Grant, Graduate Research Support Program, GPSA Jumpstart Research Grant and the GPSA Travel Grant will showcase their award-winning research posters and present their amazing papers. Keynote by Senior Vice President of the Office of Knowledge Enterprise Development, Sethuraman “Panch” Panchanathan. More info: http://gpsa.asu.edu. RSVP: http://tinyurl.com/GPSAResearchRSVP.

NEW! Grad Week Professional Day: Converting a C.V. to a Resume Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
1 – 1:30 pm
Memorial Union Building (MU) 226

Join us during Grad Week to obtain valuable career, job searching, and networking advice all in one afternoon with presentations geared toward your level of experience and education. No RSVP required and refreshments will be provided. In this session, learn tips, techniques and methods on how to translate academic information and expertise into industry, employer-friendly terms. Basic resume, formatting, and cover letter content will also be discussed.

NEW! Grad Week Professional Day: How to Use LinkedIn Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
Join us during Grad Week to obtain valuable career, job searching, and networking advice all in one afternoon with presentations geared toward your level of experience and education. No RSVP required and refreshments will be provided. In this session, basic LinkedIn profile tips will be discussed, as well as information on how to network and optimize LinkedIn features at the graduate level.

NEW! Grad Week Professional Day: Job Search for Intl. Students Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
2 – 2:30 pm
Memorial Union Building (MU) 226

Join us during Grad Week to obtain valuable career, job searching, and networking advice all in one afternoon with presentations geared toward your level of experience and education. No RSVP required and refreshments will be provided. This session will address not only how to effectively job search but some of the unique circumstances for international students.

NEW! Grad Week Professional Day: Networking Now! Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
2:30 – 3 pm
Memorial Union Building (MU) 226

Join us during Grad Week to obtain valuable career, job searching, and networking advice all in one afternoon with presentations geared toward your level of experience and education. No RSVP required and refreshments will be provided. Understanding how to effectively network is key for any successful job search. In this session, tips and tricks for using online resources such as LinkedIn and Versatile PhD will be shared.

NEW! Grad Week Professional Day: The Gift of Professional Gab Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
3 – 3:30 pm
Memorial Union Building (MU) 226

Join us during Grad Week to obtain valuable career, job searching, and networking advice all in one afternoon with presentations geared toward your level of experience and education. No RSVP required and refreshments will be provided. Both in your job search and career, you will need to be able to execute a variety of professional conversations in order to be successful. In this session, learn ways to craft a professional message and take on those sometimes difficult conversations. We will practice everything from your 30-second commercial to the art of salary negotiation.

NEW! Grad Week Professional Day: Rapid Resume Workshop Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
3:30 – 5 pm
Memorial Union Building (MU) 226
Join us during Grad Week to obtain valuable career, job searching, and networking advice all in one afternoon with presentations geared toward your level of experience and education. No RSVP required and refreshments will be provided. In this session, career advisors will be on hand to provide 10-minute resume reviews. Reviews will be provided on a first-come, first-served walk-in basis.

Writing Effectively: The Art of Argument
Tempe campus
Wednesday, March 16, 2016
3 - 4 pm
G. Homer Durham Language and Literature (LL) 268

Presenters will reintroduce students to the art of argument by discussing strategies for developing a sound argument by writing an effective claim, finding appropriate evidence to support that claim, and sharing ways to evaluate the strength of an argument.

TA Chat: Technology in the Classroom
Tempe campus
Thursday, March 17, 2016
10 – 11 am
Graduate Student Center, Center for Family Studies (CFS)

TA Chat is an opportunity for experienced and new Teaching Assistants (TAs) to share thoughts and advice about being a teaching assistant. Each TA Chat will feature a round-table of experienced TAs on a teaching-related theme, followed by time for questions and conversation between TAs. TA Chats are hosted by the Graduate Professional Student Association (GPSA) as part of the Coffee Thursdays series. Coffee and bagels will be provided! Attendance at TA Chat counts as 1 developmental experience for the Teaching Assistant Development (TAD) program.

NEW! Grad Week: GPSA Grad Week Picnic
Tempe campus
Thursday, March 117, 2016
11 am – 2 pm
Student Services Building (SSV) East Lawn

Stop by the Graduate and Professional Students Association Grad Week Picnic from 11 am to 2 pm on the Student Services Building’s East Lawn. Free pizza, ice cream, soda, and GPSA swag. Bring your grad student friends, enjoy the warm weather, vote in our annual GPSA photography contest, and meet other graduate students. More information: http://gpsa.asu.edu.

NEW LOCATION! Teaching Portfolios, Part I
Tempe campus
Friday, March 18, 2016
10:30 am – 12:30 pm
Wrigley Hall L1-04

In this seminar from the Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) series, we will discuss the rationales, theoretical underpinnings and context for effective teaching portfolios. We will also look at sample teaching philosophies, which are foundational for any teaching portfolio.
Developing a Curriculum Vitae (CV)  Tempe campus

Wednesday, March 30, 2016
12 – 1:30 pm
Business Administration (BA) 296

This workshop from the Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) series is a hands-on, interactive session that offers graduate students recommendations and pointers on developing a curriculum vitae (CV). While many students have experience in resume-writing, fewer have the training to convert a resume to an academic CV.

NEW! Theory to Practice Workshop  Tempe campus

Thursday, March 31, 2016
3 – 5 pm
Life Sciences Center Building A (LSA) 119

This Theory to Practice Workshop, designed specifically for PhD students and postdoc scholars but open to all, aims to help you leverage your research into practice. Learn to clearly articulate a problem from your area of research and evaluate possible solutions. Then, identify a potential audience for your solution and learn to effectively communicate the value and relevance of your solution (and yourself) to that target audience. This event is co-sponsored by ASU Graduate Education and Entrepreneurship + Innovation.

April Events

NEW LOCATION! Teaching Portfolios, Part II  Tempe campus

Friday, April 1, 2016
10:30 am – 12:30 pm
Wrigley Hall L1-04

This workshop from the Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) series is a hands-on, interactive session to further develop your teaching portfolio. Bring your teaching portfolio, and if possible, four copies of your teaching statement (even if it is rough or incomplete). This workshop is an opportunity to get feedback for revising your teaching portfolio and statement. Previous attendance at Teaching Portfolios, part I is recommended but not required.

Preparing to Submit for Possible Publication  Downtown Phoenix campus

Tuesday, April 5, 2016
2 - 3 pm
Post Office, Lower Level, Room L1-32
Join us for an information session that will help you draft and tackle the process of transforming a course/seminar paper into an article manuscript.

Preparing to Submit for Possible Publication

Tempe campus
Wednesday, April 6, 2016
3 – 4 pm
G. Homer Durham Language and Literature (LL) 268

Join us for an information session that will help you draft and tackle the process of transforming a course/seminar paper into an article manuscript.

Tempe campus
Tuesday, April 12, 2016
5 – 6 pm
Fletcher Library 101

Join us for an information session that will help you draft and tackle the process of transforming a course/seminar paper into an article manuscript.

Tempe campus
Thursday, April 14, 2016
3 – 4:30 pm
Physical Education Building West (PEBW), Room 148

Dr. Duane Roen, Vice Provost of the Polytechnic campus and Dean of University College as well as the College of Letters and Sciences, will talk about the value of having a teaching philosophy, how it can help you in the job market, and how to develop and hone your own teaching philosophy.

Tempe campus
Friday, April 15, 2016
10:30 am – 12:30 pm
Wrigley Hall L1-04

In this seminar, Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) brings in graduate writing consultants to discuss tips on writing grant proposals and deciphering grant applications. Participants may bring a draft of a grant proposal and/or a grant application.

Tempe campus
Thursday, April 21, 2016
10 – 11 am
Graduate Student Center, Center for Family Studies (CFS)
TA Chat is an opportunity for experienced and new Teaching Assistants (TAs) to share thoughts and advice about being a teaching assistant. Each TA Chat will feature a round-table of experienced TAs on a teaching-related theme, followed by time for questions and conversation between TAs. TA Chats are hosted by the Graduate Professional Student Association (GPSA) as part of the Coffee Thursdays series. Coffee and bagels will be provided! Attendance at TA Chat counts as 1 developmental experience for the Teaching Assistant Development (TAD) program.