

In 2001, the Faculty Emeriti Association created a fund to support students in the Preparing Future Faculty (PFF) program who are interested in faculty careers. This program is now called the Preparing Future Faculty and Scholars Program (PFX). In 2014, the Association passed on this responsibility to Emeritus College at ASU, which continues to support this fellowship program. As a result of this change, this fellowship is now called the Emeritus Faculty Fellowship.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to apply you must meet the following criteria:

1. Successfully complete the first semester of the one-year PFX program in the fall semester 2017 and be enrolled in the second semester in spring 2018 or have successfully completed the PFF program during the 2016 – 2017 Academic Year.
2. Have advanced to candidacy, or expect to advance to candidacy before the fall semester 2018, in a doctoral or MFA degree program and be within one year of completion.*
